
FAQS

WHAT IS ABA?

Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) is a scientific technique of identifying the function of behavior (why it's occurring) and developing socially appropriate alternative behaviors.

WHAT CAN ABA HELP WITH?

ABA decreases problem behaviors while increasing socially acceptable behaviors. ABA can teach communication and social skills. It can increase self-help, self-esteem, and daily living skills to promote a more independent future. ABA can improve attention, focus, memory, and academic growth.

IN-HOME AND IN-SCHOOL ABA

In-home and in-school ABA offers one-on-one therapy to address the needs of each individual. Those needs are based on assessments, observation of skills, and most importantly, parent involvement.

True Legacy addresses areas of learning within the individual's natural environment. We use evidence-based interventions that have been proven to promote growth, development, and behavior change.

Indiana is fortunate to have a strong autism mandate to assist families. True Legacy currently accepts the following insurance providers for in-home and/or in-school ABA services:

- ▶ Medicaid
- ▶ Cigna
- ▶ Tricare
- ▶ AETNA
- ▶ BCBS Anthem
